ILENE REIN
Job Search Strategist
Executive Recruiter
Founder & CEO

Ilene is the Founder of the Foolproof, Job-Getting, Career-Building System Pounding Pavement 101. She is also the Managing Partner and Executive Recruiter at Marketing & Sales Resources, an Executive Search firm.

Ilene continuously heard the same stories from job seekers - they didn't know how or where to start in their job searches, they kept getting ghosted not hearing back from Recruiters, not generating activity, not getting offers. As a Recruiter, she knew that there were certain secrets hidden inside the recruiting world which could make this job searching process much easier for anyone seeking work.

Ilene developed Pounding Pavement 101 - an advanced training course designed specifically for highly competitive job seekers who want to learn how to target their ideal job, speed up the job search process and land their dream job. Following this scientifically proven methodology, job seekers rapidly became employed in record time.

How To Get Hired Rapidly! Pounding Pavement 101 Program

Finding your perfect job can be difficult. You have tried job searching on your own. Hours have been spent applying only to hear nothing back.

It can feel like there are a million factors working against you.

You are convinced that it is impossible to get hired.

It is time to bring in a job searching expert to assist you in landing your dream job.

Pounding Pavement 101 is a scientifically proven methodology that will walk you through step-by-step exactly how to market yourself to Recruiters and Hiring Managers with laser precision to target your dream job using inside secrets from the view of the Recruiter exponentially increasing your chances of getting noticed and hired rapidly!

Think of it this way...

If you were pitching a million-dollar account, you would do everything you can to land that account, right? You would probably hire a branding expert, a speech coach, an accountant to review numbers, etc.

Well, as a job seeker, you are trying to land that big account (your dream job). You are pitching to an employer to spend a lot of money on purchasing your product... YOU!

You deserve every chance to land that dream job. You ARE worth it!

The Pounding Pavement 101 program has been designed to help you secure your dream job and in record time.

It was created by an Executive Recruiter pulling back the curtains on the recruitment process to share the insider secrets teaching you:

- How to develop a resume that generates calls
- How to prepare for an interview based on what a Recruiter is actually listening for during an interview
- Job search strategies showing you how to create immense amounts of visibility for yourself, where the jobs actually are, where Recruiters are searching so you can put yourself in front of them and streamline production to speed up the job searching process.

*"If you are struggling with your job search, ILENE IS THE BEST!
I was applying to jobs left and right for almost a year
with no activity,
and within a couple weeks of working with Ilene,
I was getting interviews, and I ultimately landed my dream job!"*

"Working with Ilene Rein of Pounding Pavement 101 was not only a pleasure, but it was also an awakening experience. As a recent graduate, I had a goal of gaining myself an entry-level job or internship in the fashion industry. Ilene changed my outlook on how to achieve this goal from my initial mindset of "something will come to me" to "I need to bang on every door I can find until I get where I want to be."

Alison Cattelona

"This is an amazing service. Ilene definitely helped my daughter organize, both on paper and online, her accomplishments and strategy for finding a job. She encouraged and pushed in ways that tend to be more effective than parental guidance. My daughter has a good job and is completely off the family payroll, in her own apt, paying loans, insurance, cell and all."

Career Professionals

Ages 24-40
Average Salary Range: $70k - $140k

The responsibilities of a career professional can be overwhelming. They have rent or mortgage payments, bills to pay and maybe even children that they need support! They cannot afford to go weeks, much less months without an income. This is why securing steady employment quickly is of utmost importance to the career professional.

How To Get Hired Rapidly! Pounding Pavement 101 Program

Job searching is a marketing project.

You may not be marketing yourself properly based on how Recruiters operate.

There are 3 steps to optimize success in your job search.

1. RESUME DEVELOPMENT

As a Recruiter I look at 500+ resumes a day, so you have about 5 seconds to catch my attention, or I move on to the next resume. Your resume's job is to generate calls. If it is not doing its job, then we need to change things up.

2. INTERVIEW PREPARATION

You are probably not the only candidate being interviewed. You need to answer questions based on what the Recruiter is listening for in your responses. If you are going on interviews and not getting job offers, again, we need to do something different.

3. JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES

You want to find a job sooner than later. Like anything else, you need a plan to create maximum visibility to increase your chances of getting noticed and hired.

STEP 1 RESUME DEVELOPMENT

Module 1 - The Road Ahead

Overview of resume writing based on the view of a Recruiter to grab their attention and basic rules and tools to get you started on the right path to get hired rapidly.

Module 2 - Inside A Recruiter's World

Putting you in the world of the Recruiter, sharing with you the inside secrets to how a Recruiter searches and what they are looking for in your resume.

Module 3 - Resume Components

A detailed discussion of each component in a resume, how to highlight your attributes to get noticed, what to include and not include and tips and tricks to increase your chances of generating calls. .
Workbook included prompting your memory of your life and work experiences.

Module 4 - Putting It All Together

Apply your experience to a Resume Template that has proven to be successful in attracting attention based on how a Recruiter searches for candidates.
Resume Templates created in Microsoft Word included for download.

Module 5 - Cover Letters

Explanation and templates to easily write a Cover Letter so it does not take three days!
Cover Letter Templates and Language included to write multiple letters quickly.

BONUS Trainings:

Creating A Powerful LinkedIn Profile
How To Effectively Use The Resume Templates

STEP 2 INTERVIEW REPARATION

Module 1 - All About Interviews

Completely changes your approach to everything you thought you knew about interviews.

Module 2 - Personal Questions

Questions related about you personally that are asked during an interview, recommended ways to answer and what a Recruiter is actually listening for in your responses for a successful interview outcome.

Module 3 - Position Questions

What do you know about the position? This module lays out in detail what research you need to do on the Company before walking into your interview.

Module 4 - Work Related Questions

We address your work behaviors, developing answers and examples of how to showcase your experience during the interview to make you shine.

Module 5 - Education Questions

Discussion on presenting your education so you stand out amongst the other candidates.

Module 6 - Abstract Questions

Preparation for those curveball questions... how to answer them and what they are really asking?

Module 7 - Lastly...

End the interview on a high note! What to do when salary negotiation time comes, and how to move interviews into offers.

Module 8 - After The Interview

Following up is just as important as the actual interview, how and when to reach out.
Email correspondence templates included.

STEP 3 JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES

Module 1 - 3 Steps To Get Hired Rapidly

For any project to be successful, you need a plan. How to target your job search with laser precision to land your dream job.

Module 2 - Plan of Attack - Active and Passive Job Searching

Where the jobs really are and where Recruiters are searching so you can put yourself in front of them to get found. Included is a list of 165 websites to post your resume and a job application tracking sheet.

Module 3 - Plan of Attack: LinkedIn

How to create immense amounts of visibility for yourself and leverage the power of LinkedIn for your job search.
